FARMVILLE.

Our dispensary receipts for six days preceding and including Christmas day amounted to $3815. "How is that for high?" and there was'nt a 'high ball' among the things sold. First thing you know Farmville will be a 'blosted bond holder' and may be proud. I hope, however money wont turn her head, but together, will continue to be the Farmville we received from our fathers, modest, generous, law-abiding and loyal. She has much to be proud of, but let it be with her as it is with individuals, where there is most merit there is most humility.

The term of our worthy postmaster hastens to a close and the question as to the successor begins to excite genuine interest. It is being whispered about that Mr. Garnet, one of our progressive and prosperous dry goods merchants would win the prize. With a $2000 salary and additional clerk's pay, it is well worth the having.

Parson Alex Bates is dead. Before the war he was 'man of all work' about the store of Messrs. Lockett and McKinney, but since freedom came to his race he has devoted himself to preaching. When the 'old issue' dies out what then? The outlook is'nt bright with hope.

I ate a variety of nuts during Christmas week but am perfectly satisfied that the Southside Virginia black 'walnut' is best of them all. They ought to appear on the table of the multi millionaires. Walnuts and dry sherry would go 'fine' together.

We did very much miss the Normal girls from our church circles the two Sundays they were not with us. We are constantly wondering how we ever got along without them.

I never knew such a wealth of calendars as floods the town this season. They are given away freely and many of them are ornamental as well as useful.

Getting up "fads" to take the place of the train is one of the terrors of these days of intense activities. Whither are we drifting? The airship can't be far in the future. It may mean that the successful venture will be witnessed at the Jamestown Exposition. Is it not true that the first electric cars were used in Richmond?

The ice spell just before Christmas was an excellent one and many of our houses were filled. Citizens of the town are not so much concerned about filling their bins as they used to be, as they can get it delivered at their door daily at less cost than from the p nds.

The servant girl problem deepens with us. I know of a housewife who was greatly perplexed the morning after Christmas when neither of her housem ids put in an appearance and on inquiry it was learned that both were "dead drunk." Our white people had as well learn to wait on themselves and be done with it. If this becomes general and the vagrant law is vigorously enforced there will be a mighty change wrought in Southside Virginia. The white man and the black man who have no means of support and wont work must be made to move on.

We have three regular policemen now, all strong, stalwart fellows, and they can spot the vagrants.

With new banks all about us and new markets for the sale of tobacco springing up on all sides, it behooves us to get the hustle on.

The machinery of the Normal is in full swing again and is moving smoothly and well. After this session there will be no more February graduates but diplomas will all be given in June of each year. The demand of teachers is so great that no Normal graduate has any concern as to employment. The demand is greater than the supply. Virginia builded wisely when she founded this school.

I never saw as many evergreens as I find in the homes of our people. I have tender sympathy for the people who don't love flowers and little children.

There has been some thought of a daily paper for Farmville, but whether the citizens of the town and community are ready for it I am not so sure. When they are it will be sure to come. I do know of the waiting pen but I do not know of the willing purse. "Money makes the mare go" and without it no newspaper venture need to start to go.

The Normal turkeys have the privileges of the town and some of them have selected the roof of the new Methodist church building as a roosting place. It takes more than one for a dinner. Perhaps as many as 26. Of course they dont have turkey every day, but are much better fed than most school girls.

I have not seen the report from the Tidewater & Western R. R. Co for the year just gone, but I am satisfied that the business was most satisfactory. The passenger travel has increased while more freight has been offered than could be handled. With this system as with larger ones of the country the cause has been a scarcity of freight cars. Piedmont Hill says that while the capacity on the part of the railroads for building freights has increased 20 per cent the freight to be hauled has increased 100 per cent.

I have not talked with a merchant of Farmville who has'nt expressed himself as satisfied with the business of 1906, and I know of no one of them who does'nt begin the work of 1907 with high hopes and good cheer.

How to command household and have jobs attended to are unsolved problems, but Anglo Saxons have'nt howered flags in the presence of en mies or difficulties and are not going to do so now. Household conveniences and family workers will meet and master the new complications, and when this has been done family bark accounts will grow too.

The forty girls who spent Christmas a the Normal enjoyed a number of delightful entertainments and then when the 2nd of January came there was no home leaving on their part and no saying of that sweet (?) old word 'good bye.' I have grown to regard it as the saddest words of the English language.

I peeped into the dispensary a few days after Christmas and things looked positively lonesome, while one of the managers lamented that the sales had fa'len from $1245 a day to $270. At the smaller figures however, the town should be annoyed with a surplus just as the treasurer of the United States is now said to be.

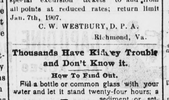
Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Don't Know It.

How To Find Out.

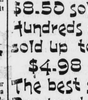
Fill a bottle or common glass with your water and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys; if it stains your linen it is evidence of kidney trouble; too frequent desire to pass it or pain in the back is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.



What to Do.

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy fulfills every wish in curing rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in 50c. and $1. size.

You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful discovery and a book that tells more about it, both sent absolutely free by mail. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper



Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

OLD BUCKINGHAM.

THE GRAND OLD COUNTY PHOTOGRAPHED.

Manufacturing Reports Made of Her People.

Buckingham.

On to Farmville! this has been the Slogan for the past week, and while there has been no glut on the market it was a busy week with the buyers and warehouse men. Prices were somewhat off on all grades except short leaf, which was selling better than before Xmas. Logs sold from $3 to $6, but $4.50 is the common price and the same grade has been selling for $4.25 at White Hall.

The road through Buckingham is fairly passable, but from Dobson's bridge to Farmville is horrid, some places almost impassable, and several quag-mires where danger signals are up, and one Buckingham wagon got hung up and had to get help to get out.

I saw a very ordinary grass veal sell for $13 on the Richmond market and that is all buyers are offering here for two-year-old steers of Red Pole stock.

The remains of Mr. R. H. Spencer were laid to rest in the new Baptist cemetery on Friday. The services were conducted by the Masons in a solemn and impressive manner. There was a fine turnout of the fraternity and a large concourse of neighbors and friends were there to pay the last sad tribute to their departed friend.

At this writing Mr. Geo. Elcan is reported as doing very well. Mr. Elcan fell off the new house he was building and was very severely hurt and has been attended by Dr. Morris.

Mr. John Charleton was thrown from his horse and very severely hurt about the head and Dr. Morris was to see him also.

Amid so much gloom and sadness from the section I will not resume the work of saying a few pleasant things of those who have gone before us, until later on, when I hope to take up where I left off, though I would fain strew a few garlands along life's pathway for those who are left, for there are some mighty nice things I could say of the good people who dwell here. One thing is certainly characteristic of them and that is they will do as much for anyone who is sick or in distress as any people anywhere. I saw one of the number pull off his sox and lend them to a stranger whose feet were sore, and put on his shoes without sox, and I know lots of deeds done to alleviate the sufferings of the "good Samaritans" here and they don't blow any trumpets or proclaim their deeds from a housetop either.

I never saw money more plentiful, despite Mr. Rockefellow's prediction of a panic pending; but what we lack is population, men to take the places of those gone away, or removed by death for "ill fares the land to hastening ills a prey, where wealth accumulates and men decay."

The slump in prices for turkeys along with the warm weather, has delayed shipments, and the big gobblers are yet strutting over the fields in goodly numbers.

There seems to be some disease among horses and mules and three or four have died and several are sick. Some people are of the opinion that damaged corn and food has something to do with the trouble.

The young people's society met at Mrs. Fisher's hotel last Saturday, Miss Mabel Swoope is president, Miss Roy Rogers, Secretary, and Mr. Walton Gilliam, Treasurer. In the sewing contest in which each young man had to hem an apron; Messrs. Frank Swoope and Wily Holland did each fine sewing, the committee decided that the honors (?) and the prize should be shared by them, and Mr. Walton Gilliam was awarded the 'booby' prize, which was a box with two 'all-day suckers' in it. The first prize was a box of fine candy. The society meets again the second Saturday in February and they will have a valentine party. At the last meeting refreshments were served and the young people had a nice time generally. These young people have so an object the improvement of the Presbyterian church building, and they contemplate having the building painted first and anyone who wants to help in this laudable effort can send any contribution to the treasurer, Mr. Walton Gilliam, Alcomr, Va.

A farmer here has been offered 9½ cents a pound for small dressed hogs and he will ship them a that price.

Master Frank Garnett had the misfortune to get a bone in one of his arms broken last Saturday.

There will be night services at the Methodist church next week.

Rev. Cesear Perkins has asked the school board to allow the pupils of the colored school here to celebrate General Lee's birthday in the new church that has been built on his farm. Truly we must live in the 20th century when the negroes are called to celebrate the anniversary of the birth of the great Confederate Chieftain.

Carline on the Race Problem.

Dear Mr. Editor:—I have been reading in the Times-Dispatch and other papers the northern ideas of social equality of the white and negro race. Right here, Mr. Editor is where I want to make a remark and that is that there is one thing produced in Virginia, that cannot be adulterated and that is a pure, hornogibbred Virginian. One that will claim some good Dutch ancestor and does go hankering around after an Indian or Frenchman for a great-great-grandmother. It is said of the negro that he can achieve more when white blood flows in his darkey veins. More shame to the white man that he should give his brain and physical strength to this human laborer. Why cannot they exclaim with Tennyson's 'Hero of Lockaley Hall':

I to herd with narrow foreheads,
Ignorant of our glorious gains
Like a beast with lower pleasures,
Like a beast with lower pain.

Yet if some of the men of Virginia or any state chose to bring ignominy on their home and name by breeding into themselves a mixed race, why let them not think the entire Southern world will tolerate it. And if those men had to take those children of darkness and pollution to their homes and give them a seat at their tables, it would so shame them that they would try and lead purer lives and show as clean a record as their sisters. If by mixing the blood of the white man with that of the negro it gives them stronger intellect, would not the offspring be just twice as strong intellectually, if both parents are white? For where the negro predominates is where we find vice of the lowest order and most degrading kind. Do any of our people think that their mothers, who were raised in all the surroundings that made a southern home pure and refined, feel honored by having the precious name of 'grandmother' fall from the lips of a negro brat? No, a thousand times no, and the white man who would bring this shame to his mother, even though the quiet hands are lying folded over a puleless heart and the cold, damp sod resting over all that is mortal. May her soul be near enough to God's great, white throne to pray God to have mercy on her wretched boy For from the beginning, we by the divine ordinance of Fravid-one have been a separate and distinct race, and if it were not so He would not have made us so. Did He make the birds of the air and fish of the sea to roost together? Yet if some men care so little for their own name or the good of their own country as to give it a mixed race to look forward to for a coming future, then those men should be showed as social lepers, and should be handed together and sent with their mongrels and the mother where they could raise them without bringing a blush to the face of an honest pure-blooded white man when he has to meet him on business, for no man, honoring the laws of this land and having a pure, white, mother, would care to meet him socially or sit down to his table, even though his dusky breed is unacknowledged and hidden in some cabin shut from the world by some pines. If a white woman were to so sin she would be stoned by society, so to speak. Then why should a man be more honored when he sins? Is it because he makes the laws of the land? Then let him look back to the time when the vast and mighty forests bowed their stately heads and whispered together, and there were no big sticks or political rings to rule our land, but strong, honest, sturdy men, as rugged and immovable as the rock on which they first landed and thanked God for a free country and a home. These men had all a Roman's regard for law and honor. Then let them look to these men and give us something besides a mulatto to vote at the ballot box.

I pray that the time will come when the negro will be better trained than to mix their breed illegally and I hope that God will hold the white man so in the hollow of his hand, and will instill into the white enough principal to teach him that it is an outrage against Heaven and earth to mix illegally or illegally, for God made every race under the sun except the mulatto and that is one of man's revised versions of humanity

Lucinda is out in her house enlarging a bigger picture, but if she makes one hair of it's head look like white folks I am 'gwine to kill her.

INTERESTING STORIES ABOUT HOME FOLKS.

Our Correspondents Relate the News of the County.

Hebron.

Generally scarcity of an article increases its value and causes it to be more appreciated. We trust this may prove true in the case of Hebron letters. For months you have had but very few, not because our live section had nothing worthy of communication, but just a pressure of business on the correspondent.

Today we are thinking of the New Year resolutions and among others have decided to do better in this particular. Nothing so much sweetens life as a kind and loving intercourse and these letters often bring tidings from friends of which we would not otherwise hear, and we should appreciate and encourage the medium of our good county paper.

Christmas has passed off very pleasantly. There has been a general ingathering of our boys and girls who have been absent a school or at their different vocation of business, and many hearts have been gladdened by this happy reunion. The weather was fine and entertainments numerous.

Tuesday quite a number of young ones met at the hospitable home of Mr. Peter Stratton and had quite an enjoyable time. The Misses Le Grande, of Lynchburg were among the guests expecting to spend a merry Xmas, but pleasure is often followed by sadness and Wednesday they were hastily summoned to the bedside of their ill mother.

Wednesday there was a general ice gathering and we are glad to know many of us have our houses quite or nearly filled with this luxury and necessary article.

Prof. George Davidson of Oklahoma, Messrs. B. Jennings, of Richmond college, Corbon Stratton, of Tennessee, Norman Taylor of Richmond, Tom Woodson, also of Richmond Vaughan, and Horsely Taylor, of Lynchburg were among the visitors.

Miss Alice Stratton is back to spend the winter in the country, to which life she is very partial.

Capt. Carson, who has had a long and painful spell, though much improved, is still confined to the house.

Mr. Bennie Wheeler, who came very near losing his life at a house moving, is still quite unwell. We have missed the genial faces of these good brethren who are so punctual in their church.

This we believe covers about the proceedings of the week, and hence I close.

May the TIMES continue to prosper with the New Year, and may kindness, charity and love dwell in the hearts of both editor and readers, and each one more than ever endeavor to walk in the steps of Him who went about doing good.
